Medical Reports

If we ask for a medical report with details of your current condition, the history of your condition and any proposed treatment you don't have to give your consent however if you don't give consent we may not be able to process your claim.

If you wish to see the report before it is sent to us please tick the box below. We will write to you to tell you the date we request the report and you must contact the medical practitioner within 21 days of the date of our request. You have 21 days from the date of contacting your medical practitioner to arrange to see it.

I wish to see any report from the medical practitioner and/or hospital before it's sent to AXA

If you don't tick the box but then change your mind, you can contact your medical practitioner and ask to see the report.

You can ask the medical practitioner to see the report at any time within six months of the medical practitioner sending it to us.

If you disagree with the information in the report, you can ask the medical practitioner to change it. If the medical practitioner does not agree with you, they will ask you to write a statement to go with the report that is sent to us.

Your medical practitioner does not have to show you parts of the report if they think it could cause harm to your physical or mental health, or if it shows future plans for your care that the medical practitioner doesn't want you to see.

If the report includes information about someone else, the medical practitioner will not show you that part of the report.

Your medical practitioner may charge you for a copy of the report. This charge is not covered by your plan.

If any medical records we receive show that a medical condition should have been declared on your plan application, we may change the terms of your plan.

Data Protection

We'll handle your personal data in accordance with all relevant Data Protection legislation.

You are entitled to see information we hold about you. You can write to us to ask for a copy of any personal information about you in any independent reports we request. If you would like a copy of a medical report that your medical practitioner has sent to us, it will be quickest if you contact them direct because we will have to get their permission to release it to you.

To ensure that we are able to provide the best service to you we process claims in various countries throughout the world.

We may audit the medical records of medical practitioners and hospitals to:

- prevent and detect crime, particularly fraud,
- review the performance of specialists,
- ensure that we are being correctly billed for their services.

Audits may be part of a programme or in response to a specific event.

We may need to share information with third parties including medical experts, other insurers and other organisations concerned with the detection and prevention of fraud.

In certain circumstances we are required by law to disclose information to law enforcement agencies about suspicions of fraudulent claims and other crimes. This may involve adding non-medical information to databases that can be viewed by other insurers and law enforcement agencies. We may also be required to tell relevant regulatory bodies about any issue where we have reason to doubt a medical provider's fitness to practise.
