Data Protection – compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("GDPR")

As you may be aware, from the 25 May 2018 the GDPR will apply in respect of any personal data either processed in the European Economic Union or relating to any individual resident therein. Therefore, any personal data which we share or accept from you (the "Personal Data") shall be shared on the following basis:

1. We each act as controllers in common in our dealings with each other;
2. Our expectation and the basis on which we are dealing with you is that:
 - a. you will comply with obligations under the GDPR and applicable data protection legislation (the "Data Protection Legislation");
 - b. you shall not cause AXA to breach its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation;
 - c. you shall not process the Personal Data provided to you by AXA for any purpose not expressly authorised by AXA or the data subject; and
 - d. to the extent that you provide Personal Data to AXA, you shall ensure that all fair processing notices have been given (and/ or, as applicable, valid consents obtained that have not been withdrawn) and are sufficient in scope and kept up-to-date in order to meet the Data Protection Legislation requirements around ensuring that processing is fair and transparent.
3. You acknowledge that nothing in this statement purports to appoint you as a processor for and on behalf of AXA in respect of the Personal Data (or any personal data).
4. Any reference to the terms "controller", "personal data", "processor" and "processing" shall have the meanings set out in the GDPR.
